

NCT07562087: A Study to Evaluate Safety and Efficacy of TP-05 in Healthy Participants With Tick Exposure

Gender: ALL

Age: 18 Years - 70 Years

Criteria:

Inclusion Criteria:

- * Overtly healthy adult participants aged 18 to 70 years
- * Able to provide written informed consent
- * Willing and able to comply with study procedures
- * At high risk of exposure to ticks
- * Contraceptive use by men and women consistent with local regulations

Exclusion Criteria:

- * Prior exposure to TP05 or any isooxazoline in the last 12 months
- * Known hypersensitivity to TP05 or related compounds
- * Clinically significant medical conditions that may interfere with study participation
- * Use of investigational products within 30 days prior to screening.
- * Received previous vaccination against Lyme borreliosis, including investigational vaccines intended to prevent Lyme borreliosis
- * Receiving long-term antibiotic therapy
- * Received active or passive immunization within 4 weeks prior to Day
- * Pregnant or breastfeeding individuals