

NCT07563062: Oropharyngeoesophageal Topical Anesthesia Versus Intravenous Propofol -Ketamine Sedation for Upper Gastrointestinal Endoscopy

Gender: ALL

Age: 21 Years - 64 Years

Criteria:

Inclusion Criteria:

- * Both sexes.
- * Patients aged between 21-64 years old undergoing elective upper GI endoscopy after taking informed consent.
- * ASA class II /III
- * BMI $\leq$ 30kg/m²

Exclusion Criteria:

- * Hypersensitivity to drugs included in the study.
- * Difficult airway or known airway problems.
- * Active bleeding from esophageal varices.
- * Emergency procedure
- * Low base line oxygen saturation $\leq$ 92% at room air.
- * Cases expected to need general anesthesia for the procedure as judged by endoscopist.